- 263,000 residents,
- Another 100,000 TTWA
- £5.63B economy
- Over 5m visitors p.a.

Plymouth's economy has been growing, but not as fast as nationally.

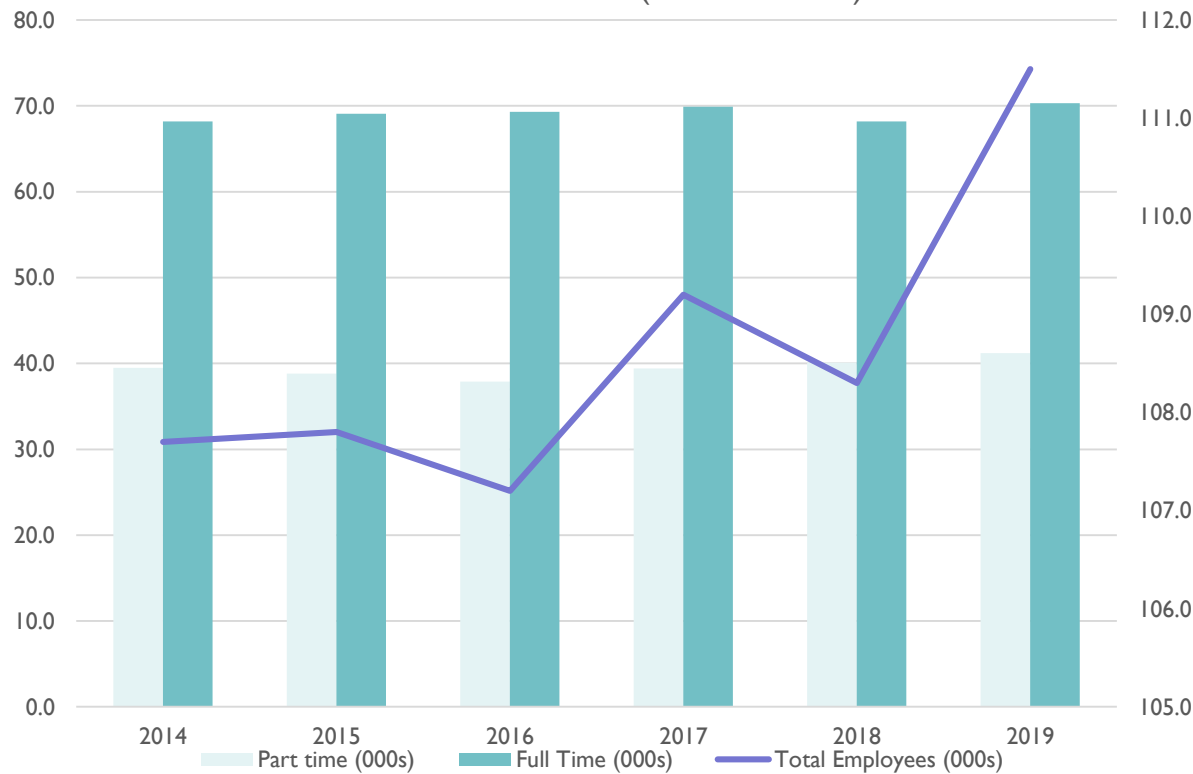

Nominal GVA per hour worked Index (UK=100)

Slow Employment Growth

Total Employees in Plymouth;
Full time and Part time (2014 to 2019)

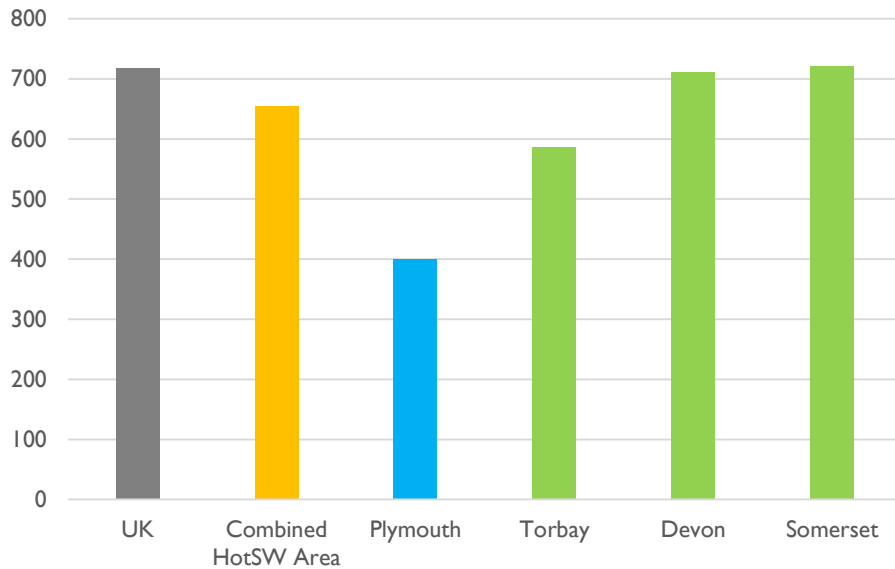

Total employees in Plymouth has risen by only 3.5% from 2014 to 2019. This is less than both the South West (6.2%) and the UK (7.72%).

Employment growth driven by part-time jobs rather than full-time.

Business Stock and Start Ups

Active Enterprises per 10,000 working age pop.

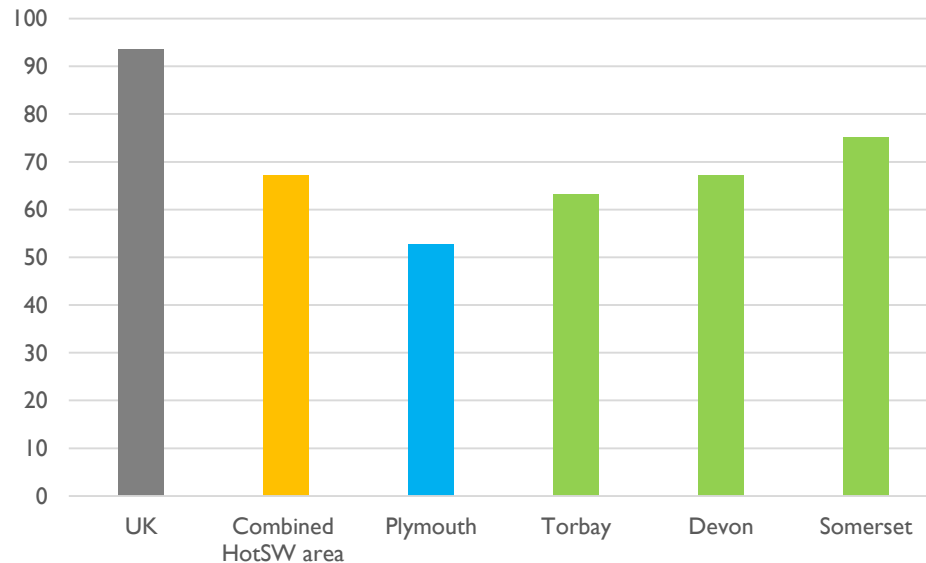

Plymouth’s business density is considerably lower than the surround areas as well as the national average.

The distribution of economic activity in Plymouth i.e. concentrated around large organisations (HMNB, hospital etc.) makes increasing business density difficult.

Enterprise birth rates are also low in Plymouth.

Despite some year-on-year fluctuation, this rate has not seen any significant increase in the last 7 years.

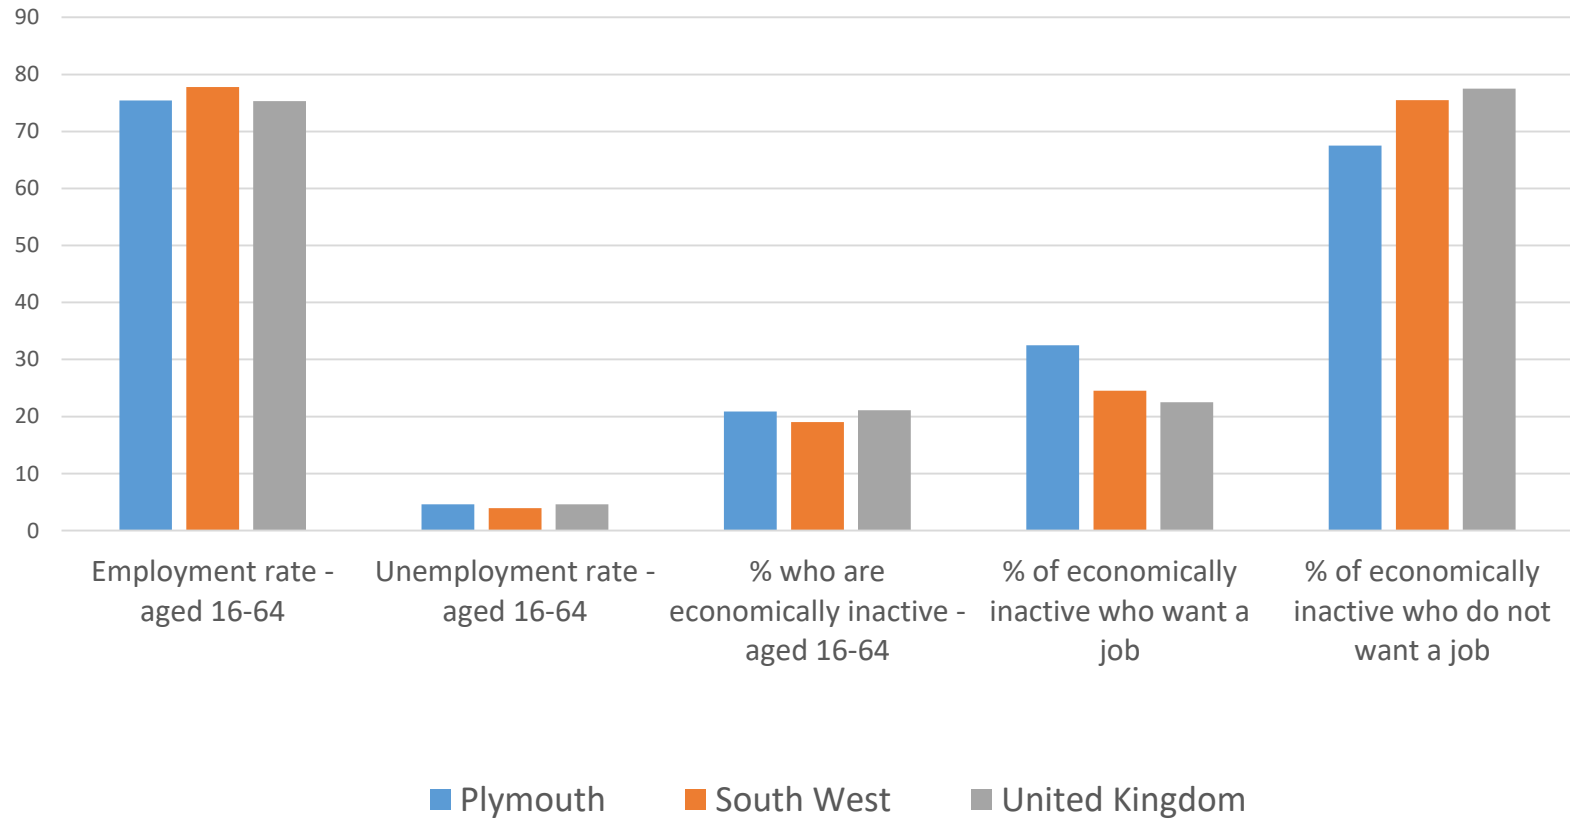

Enterprise Births per 10,000 working age pop.
