The Committee –

- (a) considered and took into account the report from the Director of Public Health;
- (b) heard from the applicant;
- (c) heard from the licensing officer;
- (d) took into account all that was said by the taxi driver, all relevant policies referred to in the report, the fact that the taxi driver wasn't acting in the course of his employment when the incident occurred;
- (e) considered the review on its own merits whilst considering relevant licensing objectives of Safety and Health of Drivers and the Public, Vehicle Safety, Prevention of Crime and Disorder and the Protection of Consumers in the Council's policy.

The Committee asked themselves the question, set out in the Council's policy, as to whether they would allow someone they cared about or a vulnerable person to get into a vehicle driven by this individual, and the answer was no.

Members agreed that this driver was no longer considered to be a fit and proper person and that the licence would be revoked in accordance with Section 19 Plymouth City Council Act 1975 on the grounds of being convicted of an offence involving violence and "any other reasonable cause".
