Council Actions from Motions on Notice
16/1 1/20	A New Police Station for Plymouth Council agrees that the Leader of the Council: Will write to the Police and Crime Commissioner to request that the police estate requirements for the city and for its provision of significant force-wide capabilities are prioritised and given full consideration in the future police estate strategy. The purpose is to ensure Plymouth can meet its policing needs most cost-effectively and sustainably into the future. Will offer every assistance to the Commissioner to help coordinate and establish proposals for any new police building(s) in Plymouth. It will be vital to ensure that any proposals are integral to the wider programme of capital investment underway to drive our economic development, public safety, and sustainable future.	Assistant Chief Executive	COMPLETE Letter sent 2 February 21 to the Police and Crime Commissioner Alison Hernandez
25/0 1/21	Marine Environment & Fishing Amended to – Fishing and the Marine Environment are vitally important to the City of Plymouth and its economy. To specifically support our local fishing community and to protect our internationally important marine environment we call on the Leader of Plymouth City Council:	Strategic Director for Place

	To write on behalf of the Council, congratulating the Prime Minister on bringing the UK in line with the EU ban on pulse fishing introduced in 2018, supporting the regulation of vessel types to protect our marine environment and sustainable fisheries, and to ask for the following: 1. With respect to the £23m compensation fund designed to help those negatively impacted by new UK red tape and UK systems designed to comply with our new third country status, to ensure that Plymouth and the South West fishing boats, exporters and supply chain who have been greatly affected are prioritised. 2. With respect to the £100m fund announced for infrastructure and fishing vessel renewal, to ensure that in particular Plymouth and the South West vessels and English fishing supply chain businesses and harbours who have done particularly and disproportionately badly out of the Trade and Cooperation Agreement will see increased support, to remain competitive and in business. 3. The urgent publication of the Government's consultation responses on i) Quota allocations and management in 2021 and beyond: England and the Crown dependencies ii) Fisheries: strengthening the economic link licence condition in England lii) Fisheries: apportioning additional quota between the UK administrations: UK and the Crown dependencies.		ONGOING
25/01/21	Tampon Tax Amended to - Council joins with the Chancellor in congratulating Paula Sherriff, the former Labour MP for Dewsbury, in her campaign to abolish the Tampon Tax. Further the Council welcomes the change in government policy which now means that VAT on women's sanitary products has been removed from 1st January 2021. Council welcomes the work that Red Box and Trevi House have done in Plymouth over a number of years to raise concerns about the Tampon Tax and in the practical steps they have taken to mitigate its impact on local women. It further welcomes the leadership taken by the Council's current Labour administration over the past two years in raising these issues and thanks Lindsey	Assistant Chief Executive

	Hall for the support she is giving in working with schools to raise awareness of period poverty. Council recognises that there is more to do to tackle period poverty and therefore instructs the Leader of Plymouth City Council to write to the Chancellor Rishi Sunak to congratulate him on backing Paula Sherriff's calls by abolishing VAT on women's sanitary products and to ask the Chancellor to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • make it clear that that manufacturers and retailers should match this commitment by providing a price reduction for the public • maintain the current ring-fenced funding for projects that help disadvantaged and vulnerable women across the UK.
