Appeal Decisions between 05/04/2022 and 12/06/2022

Decision Date	Original Planning Application	Appeal Reference	Inspectors Decision	Inspectors Reference Number
05/04/2022	20/00704/OUT	2021/0006	Appeal Dismissed	APP/N1160/W/21/3269385
Ward
Southway
Address
Land At Cann Lod	ge Accessed Off Cheshire Drive Tame	erton Foliot Plymouth
Application Desc	ription
Outline application	on for 14 dwellings with all matters r	eserved except access
Appeal Process	Officers Nam	e
Written Represer	tations Mr Chris King	5
Synopsis
would not outwe with the objective DEV23 and DEV28 would be likely to however did not a	igh the scale of harm to these non-de of C2 of the National Design Guide. 3, and that the development would ir have an unacceptable risk to pedest agree that the development would b	esignated heritage assets. It The inspector also agreed t nvolve an unacceptable loss rian safety or cause conges e harmful to the ecological	was therefore agreed that the proposal of that the proposal would detract from the of green infrastructure in conflict with Di tion and inconvenience for existing highw	of St. Mary and that the benefits of the proposal conflicts with policies SPT11 and DEV21 and is at odds character and appearance of the area, in conflict with EV27. The Inspector concurred that the proposal way users in conflict with DEV29. The Inspector DEV26 as he considered that suitably worded ts.

Decision Date	Original Planning Application	Appeal Reference	Inspectors Decision	Inspectors Reference Number
06/04/2022	18/00649/FUL	2019/0031	Appeal Dismissed	APP/N1160/W/19/3228647
Vard
Plymstock Duns	tone
ddress
and Off Colesd	own Hill Plymouth
Application De	scription
Change of use of	of the land to a private Gypsy and Tr	aveller caravan site consi	sting of 2no mobile homes, car park	ng and associated development
ppeal Process	Officers Na	ame
nformal Hearin	g Mr Paul W	ebber ynopsis
	road the proposal would conflict w		,	en Space (in particular Policies DEV27 and PLY54 of the JLP) ind Policy DEV2	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity	-		ing Gypsy and Traveller accommodation he considered that nd Policy DEV2	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl	an when considered as a	whole. Moderate weight was attach	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the nd Policy DEV2 he scheme wou planning policy	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial we	an when considered as a gight to the unmet need for	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable nd Policy DEV2 he scheme wou lanning policy lternative sites	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial we was also afforded substantial weig	an when considered as a eight to the unmet need for at, along with the persona	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the nd Policy DEV2 he scheme wou lanning policy Iternative sites cheme was the	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial we was also afforded substantial weigl refore deemed substantial. The har	an when considered as a right to the unmet need for nt, along with the persona m to, and policy conflict v	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ vith, the Strategic Green Space and t	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the he functions and characteristics of the Saltram Countryside nd Policy DEV2 he scheme wou lanning policy lternative sites cheme was the Park attributed	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Id conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial we was also afforded substantial weigl refore deemed substantial. The har moderate weight. However, the pot	an when considered as a sight to the unmet need for nt, along with the persona m to, and policy conflict w ential disruption and har	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ with, the Strategic Green Space and t n to the habitat of bats a matter of g	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the he functions and characteristics of the Saltram Countryside great significance that weighs to a very large extent against t ind Policy DEV2 he scheme wou planning policy ilternative sites cheme was the Park attributed proposal. The in	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial we was also afforded substantial weigl refore deemed substantial. The har moderate weight. However, the pot portance of ensuring that a protec	an when considered as a hight to the unmet need for it, along with the persona im to, and policy conflict w ential disruption and harr ted species is not unduly	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ with, the Strategic Green Space and t n to the habitat of bats a matter of g harmed tipped the balance of all the	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the he functions and characteristics of the Saltram Countryside great significance that weighs to a very large extent against t considerations such that the combined harm would not be nd Policy DEV2 he scheme wou lanning policy Iternative sites cheme was the vark attributed proposal. The in putweighed by t	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial weig was also afforded substantial weigl refore deemed substantial. The har moderate weight. However, the pot portance of ensuring that a protect he cumulative benefits of the prop	an when considered as a eight to the unmet need for nt, along with the persona m to, and policy conflict w ential disruption and har ted species is not unduly osal. The Council made a	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ vith, the Strategic Green Space and t n to the habitat of bats a matter of g harmed tipped the balance of all the costs claim, the Inspector agreed the	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the he functions and characteristics of the Saltram Countryside great significance that weighs to a very large extent against t considerations such that the combined harm would not be t the appellant should have been timelier in the supply of ind Policy DEV2 he scheme wou planning policy ilternative sites cheme was the Park attributed proposal. The in putweighed by t	6 of the JLP concerning biodiversity Ild conflict with the development pl or traveller sites and substantial weig was also afforded substantial weig refore deemed substantial. The har moderate weight. However, the pot portance of ensuring that a protect he cumulative benefits of the prop vever did not find that unreasonable	an when considered as a eight to the unmet need for nt, along with the persona m to, and policy conflict w ential disruption and har ted species is not unduly osal. The Council made a	whole. Moderate weight was attach or Gypsy and Traveller pitches. The l I circumstances of the proposed occ vith, the Strategic Green Space and t n to the habitat of bats a matter of g harmed tipped the balance of all the costs claim, the Inspector agreed the	ed to the compliance with Policy DEV13 of the JLP and the ack of availability of suitable, affordable and acceptable upiers of the site. The combined weight in support of the he functions and characteristics of the Saltram Countryside great significance that weighs to a very large extent against t considerations such that the combined harm would not be