Age	The average age in Plymouth (39.0 yrs.) is about the same as the rest of England (39.3 yrs.), but less than the South West (41.6yrs). Of the 16 SW authorities we have the third lowest % of older people (75), the sixth highest % of working age people and the fifth highest % of children and young people (under 18). Under 18s account for 19.8% of our population within this 17.5 % are under 16. As of March 2013, there are estimated to be 479 (6.9 %) young people aged between 16 and 18 who are NEET. The proportion of the working age population (16-64) is higher (66.1%) than regionally (62.8%) and nationally (64.7%).		None	N/A

Gender - including marriage, pregnancy and maternity	Overall 50.6 % of our population are women and 49.4 % are men: this reflects the national figure of 50.8 % women and 49.2 % men. There were 3,280 births in 2011. Birth-rate trends have been on the increase since 2001, but since 2010 the number of births has stabilised. Of those aged 16 and over, 90,765 people (42.9%) are married. 5,190 (2.5 %) are separated and still legally married or legally in a same-sex civil partnership. In Plymouth in 2014 average hourly earnings for women (£10.00) were 93 % of average hourly male earnings (£11.82). In Plymouth in 2005, women working full time earned only 81 % of average hourly fulltime male earnings. By 2010 this gap had closed and women were earning 90 %. In 2014 the gap had slightly widened. Across the South West region in 2014 women working full-time only earn 86 % of average full-time hourly male earnings, and for the UK as a whole the figure is 90%. Recent census data suggests we have at least 43 main languages spoken in the city, showing Polish, Chinese and Kurdish as the top three. Four neighbourhoods have a population of school age children where 20% or more are from a BME background. They are City Centre (38%), Greenbank and University (32.3 %), Stonehouse (29.9%) and East End (23.4%). There are 1867 school children (over 5 years old) that speak English as an additional other language.	No adverse impacts anticipated	None	N/A
