

Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel – Tracking Decisions 2024/25

Number	Minute No.	Resolution	Target Date, Officer Responsible and Progress
1.	Public Engagement: Improving police contact services 24 November 2023	Commissioner to bring Footfall vs 101 Demand data to the next panel meeting.	Date Due: 2 February 2024 Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: This information is contained within the Contact report, that report has been deferred to the next meeting in October 24. Update was provided in October 24.
2.	Proposed Precept, Budget and Medium Term Financial Strategy (MTFS) 2 February 2024	Commissioner to provide members with data surrounding abandonment rates for 101 calls.	Due Date: ASAP Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: Paper on contact deferred to the next meeting in October 24. Update was provided in October 24.
3.	Confirmation Hearing for Deputy Commissioner 19 July 2024	Commissioner to bring report to the Panel within 12 months of the progress of the Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner.	Due Date: Within 12 months Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: The appointment of the DPP is, in law, intended to support the PCC's delivery of their legal duties. The role of the Panel is to scrutinise the PCC's delivery of their duties and this does not extend to the DPCC. The PCC provides an update report to the Panel at each meeting on the delivery of her duties and police and crime plan. Any deliverables of the DPCC or any other appointed member of staff of the OPCC supporting the delivery of the Police and

Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel – Tracking Decisions 2024/25

			Crime Plan will be included within this update report.
4.	Draft Police and Crime Plan 2024 – 2029 19 July	Commissioner to explicitly state in the Police and Crime Plan the summer challenges faced in Devon, Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.	Due Date: ASAP Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: This feedback will be considered in the consultation.
5.	Public Engagement and Contact 4 October	Commissioner to return in six months to review the trajectory and consistency of public engagement.	Due Date: Within 6 months Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: We will bring something back in July's panel.
6.	Public Engagement and Contact 4 October	Commissioner to release positive communications to ensure the public are confident in using the 101 call line.	Due Date: ASAP Person Responsible: Alison Hernandez Progress: Ongoing: Recommendation of panel being considered by the PCC and Chief Constable.

Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel – Tracking Decisions 2024/25

7.	Work Programme  4 October	Circulate the slide pack which was given at the Precept to Members.	Due Date: ASAP  Person Responsible: Rosie Brookshaw  Progress: Treasurer will make arrangements with Plymouth City Council for a budget briefing in January 25.
----	--	---	--