Dependent carers' allowance

Councillors are entitled to claim for the duration of the approved duty plus reasonable travelling time. The allowance should not be payable to a member of the claimant's own household. See below.

Approved duties and claiming childcare and dependent carers' allowances

If a councillor is responsible for the care of children, elderly relatives or people with disabilities, childcare and dependent carers' allowances may be claimed (against receipts). The maximum period of the entitlement is the duration of the approved duty plus reasonable travelling time. The allowance should not be payable to a member of the claimant's own household.

Councillors undertaking approved duties may claim Travel, Subsistence and Dependent carers allowance unless remuneration and/or expenses are provided by the body to which the approved duty relates.

Approved duties are:

- attending a committee, sub-committee or outside body meeting
- attendance at any other authorised meeting (provided that it is a meeting to which Councillors of at least two political groups have been invited)
- attendance at a meeting of any association of authorities of which the authority is a member
- attendance at any Cabinet meeting
- performance of any duty connected with the opening of tenders
- performance of any duty requiring the authority to inspect or authorise the inspection of any premises
- performance of any duty in connection with arrangements for the attendance of pupils at any school approved for the purposes of section
  - 342 (approval of non-maintained special schools) of the Education Act 1996
- attendance at development and learning events
- the carrying out of any other duty approved by the authority for the purpose of or in connection with the discharge of the functions of the authority or any of its committees or sub-committees
