7349 CYP engaged in participative activities so far...

Inspectors stated: 'The voice and active participation of children and young people in service planning is outstanding.

2010: Big consultation: 31.4% of CYP questioned agreed or strongly agreed that their voices had been listened too.'

Services are collaborating to ensure consultation and participation reaches out to a wider remit of CYP

CYP continue to work to tackle issues such as bullying, raising aspirations

UKYP representatives chosen by 1707 of the crities young people building upon the 612 who voted in 2010

CYP are impacting at an executive level by having roles on Over view and Scrutiny and the Aspirations Board

Risks

7349 CYP won't have had a voice over the service they access

Services spend money ineffectively by developing what they think CYP want rather than what they need

CYP needing support don't engage in the services they need= increase in risk taking behaviour, mental health issues, drop out of school.
