Building Effective RE in a New Educational Landscape

The seventh South West SACREs Conference will again take place at Dillington House, Ilminster. We have a superb variety of workshops on offer and are delighted that MARK CHATER will provide a keynote address. Mark is the Director of the Culham St Gabriel's Trust and a former Consultant to the QCDA and he will be able to update us on the rapidly changing educational landscape - which will have implications for all SACREs.

Workshop choices:-

- ★ Teaching Christianity for coherent progression - Derek and Verity Holloway
- ★ The 2nd section of the RE review - 6 issues for discussion - Barbara Wintersgill
- ★ Involving faith communities and individuals in championing RE - Katy Staples
- ★ Including an enquiry-based model in your agreed syllabus programme of study - Jan Lever
- ★ Employers and the RE Quality Mark (REQM) - Andy Midwinter
- ★ What constitutes Knowledge in RE? How SACREs can help teachers make decisions about what to teach - David Hampshire

Plus:-

- ★ National Updates: RE:quest; RE:ONLINE; NASACRE; South Gloucestershire SACRE and more!

To register your place please inform your SACRE Clerk, with any dietary requirements.
