Executive Summary:

The Police and Crime Panel (PCP) is responsible for scrutinising and supporting the actions and decisions of the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) and also has a role in supporting the PCC in the effective exercise of his function, acting as a critical friend.

The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 states that the PCC must produce an Annual Report, attached as Appendix 1, on the exercise of his functions in each financial year, and the progress which has been made in meeting the objectives in the Police and Crime Plan, which has been attached as Appendix 2.

Recommendations & Reasons for recommended action:

That the PCP uses its powers in accordance with the legislation to review, report and make any recommendations regarding the PCC's Annual Report.

Alternative options considered, and reasons for recommended action:

The alternative option would be for the PCP not to review, report and make recommendations regarding the PCC's Annual Report, and therefore the PCP will not have complied with their statutory functions as stated in the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011.
