Dear Sir/Madam

Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel Scrutiny Review - Call for evidence

I am writing to advise that at its meeting on 20th June 2014, the Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel (PCP) agreed to conduct a scrutiny review in relation to the "How is the Police and Crime Commissioner Strengthening Relationships and Showing Leadership in Partnership Working?".

The role of the PCP is to provide support and scrutiny challenge to the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC), to promote openness in the transaction of police business and also to support the PCC in the effective exercise of their functions. The PCP is not responsible for scrutinising the performance of the police force as a whole or the Chief Constable, as this is the responsibility of the PCC. Both the role of the PCC and the PCP were created as part of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, which brought in new structural arrangements for national policing, strategic police decision-making, neighbourhood policing and policing accountability.

The PCP is due to undertake the review at its next meeting on 19 December 2014 and will be adopting a select committee style approach. In order to assist the PCP Members in effectively scrutinising the topic, the Panel is seeking written evidence from stakeholders through the provision of responses to the following questions:

- 1) How is the Police and Crime Commissioner strengthening relationships with you?
- 2) How is the Police and Crime Commissioner showing leadership in partnership working?

The PCP would be grateful for any written responses your organisation is able to provide. The deadline for written responses is Monday 1 December 2014 and responses

Please also let us know if you, or a colleague would be willing and able to attend PCP meeting on 19 December 2014, as a witness, to provide verbal evidence. It should be noted there will be a limited opportunity to hear from witnesses and those invited will be notified in advance.

Please note that, depending on the level/number of responses received, we may need to summarise responses for presentation to the Panel.

Members of the public are welcome to attend and observe Police and Crime Panel meetings. For more information about when meetings are occurring, and to view archived and live webcasts of Panel Meetings, please visit the Panel's website:

Members of the public can also ask questions in respect of the functions of the Police and Crime Panel at Panel Meetings – to find out more about how to do this, information is available at <http://www.plymouth.gov.uk/dcpcpquestions.html>

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Cllr Roger Croad
Chair, Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Panel
