Priority 1: Connecting Communities and Policing

A Local Policing Promise - that policing is Accessible, Responsive, Informative, Supportive

Accessible

The police and the PCC will be easier to contact - face to face and from a distance

Responsive

The police will be there when needed and will provide clear feedback on what action will be taken

Local Policing Promise

Policing in your area will be:

Informative

The police and the PCC will keep you well informed on crime and policing issues - locally, regionally and nationally

Supportive

The police and the PCC will work with partners, the public and businesses to identify and resolve issues locally and to prevent crime and harm

Priority 3: Protecting people at risk of abuse and those who are vulnerable

- Helping prevent the vulnerable becoming victims of serious crimes like fraud, scams, grooming and modern slavery
- Working to tackle 'revenge porn', the viewing and transfer of sexual images and 'sext-ing' by young people to young people which can potentially lead to their exploitation
- Commissioning services and supporting the work of partners to protect the vulnerable
- Reducing the number of vulnerable missing people, particularly, children
- ensuring that the police workforce receive the necessary support and training to identify vulnerability

Priority 4: Supporting victims and witnesses and helping them to get justice

- A full review of the treatment of victims of sexual offences within the criminal justice system, to identify ways to improve the experience of victims and witnesses.
- Developing a joint Victim Strategy, - an end to end wrap around support service for victims of crime to provide a high quality service to all victims of crime
- Launching of the online Track my Crime service
- Launch a new victim-led Restorative Justice process in Devon, Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly by the end of 2017
- Enhanced victim care unit

Priority 5: Getting the best out of the police
