FOREWORD

SACRE Chair's Report

Martin to complete.

Martin Edmonds
Chair of Plymouth SACRE

INTRODUCTION

Plymouth SACRE is pleased to produce this report as a summary of its work in religious education and collective worship. It provides a valuable opportunity to reflect on its deliberations over the last year and to inform others of its work.

SACRE is a unique organisation and amidst the profound challenges and issues we face, concerning the place of religion in schools and society, there has never been a more important time for the teaching and learning of good quality RE in schools.

I RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I.1 The Agreed Syllabus

In late 2018 and during the first two terms of 2019 SACRE representatives from Devon, Plymouth and Torbay SACREs liaised and Plymouth SACRE members met as an Agreed Syllabus Conference to agree a new, revised syllabus. Across the three Local Authorities, the RE Today syllabus was agreed and adopted.

In Plymouth, the syllabus was made available to all Plymouth schools: maintained, academies, free and public schools, free of charge. In addition, all were invited to the launch of the syllabus, that included high quality training. XXX schools attended and XX have adopted the syllabus so far. SACRE will seek feedback on this syllabus over the academic year 2019/20

As we continue to move forward, our flexible approach, reflected within the syllabus will allow teachers to take account of relevant national influences and developments in Religious Education.

2 STANDARDS IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

2.1 Background to exemplification of standards.

2.1.1 For several years now the absence of specific Ofsted comments during Inspection on Religious Education has meant that SACRE has lost a major “intelligence gathering” tool.

2.1.2 SACRE continues to encourage all schools to use the excellent resources now available, nationally, through websites such as RE Today; The Religious Education Council and NATRE.

2.2 Examination Results in Religious Studies

2.2.1 This year 12 Plymouth Secondary Schools entered a total of 597 candidates for the full GCSE examination in Religious Studies. Plymouth’s entry represents just over 24% of the year groups, in these schools. 50.9% of students achieved grades 9-4, (27% nationally). Fewer students were entered for GCSE, this year, a fall of 224 students on 2017/18.

2.2.2 Short course and Entry Level data was not available to be included in this report.

2.2.3 11 Secondary Schools entered a total of 89 students for the Advanced Level Religious Studies examinations and 98% achieved grades A*-E (97.9% nationally).

2.2.4 6 Secondary schools entered a total of 36 students for AS level and 80.5% achieved grades A*-E (90.9% nationally).

2.2.5 SACRE congratulates all the candidates and their teachers on their hard work and achievements at this academic year's examinations in Religious Studies.

3 COMPLAINTS ABOUT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

No complaints about religious education have been received by SACRE.

4 TRAINING AND SUPPORT

4.1 Plymouth Centre for Faiths & Cultural Diversity (PCFCD)

SACRE continues to support the innovative work of the Centre that is seen as a unique and major resource for schools, to support and enhance the development of high quality RE at all levels.

The central aim of the Centre is to promote education and understanding of world religions and cultural diversity. Through the exploration of different beliefs and cultures, the common thread of human and spiritual values is explored. These are the values that may help to ensure the future security and well-being of our local and international community. These values are therefore at the heart of the centre's promotion and development of community cohesion and well-being in schools.

The Centre continues to provide opportunities to children and young people across Plymouth to meet representatives from a variety of faiths and cultural backgrounds, either in their schools or in other settings, and is, currently, supported by 44 active faith and cultural speakers.

During the last financial year, over 90 schools accessed the Centre's services either on a subscription or pay-as-you-use basis.

PCFCD provided these schools with sessions and workshops covering a wide range of faiths, the most requested of which were: Islam, Hinduism, Judaism, Buddhism, Christianity, Sikhism & Humanism, and cultural speakers brought alive the Japanese, African, Chinese, and Aboriginal cultures. Storytelling, Meditation/Mindfulness, HMD and British Values workshops were also delivered.

In total, PCFCD's faith and cultural speakers spent more than 400 hours engaged in classroom-based sessions during this period.

PCFCD also provides students with the opportunity to bring their classroom-based learning to life by arranging speaker-led visits and faith trails to places of worship in the city including Plymouth's famous Synagogue, PIETy Islamic Centre, Ashoka Buddhist Centre and many local Churches, including the Greek Orthodox Church, the Minster Church of St. Andrew, Methodist Central Hall and Plymouth Unitarian Church.

During the last financial year, students spent more than 90hrs undertaking these visits and again, the Centre has received positive feedback from its clients.

In total, PCFCD received booking requests that equated to nearly 600 hours of speaker time in the last financial year and, annually, the Centre sees the demand for its services grow with the number of bookings dealt with across the last three years having more than tripled. As a small charity, funding and staffing, both of which have reduced during the same period, have placed pressures on PCFCD to deliver their services to schools.

4.2 Courses, Conferences, Meetings

Plymouth SACRE was represented at the South West SACRE Conference at Dillington in March that always provides practical support and encouragement for members.

4.2 Plymouth RE Hub

4.3

Plymouth RE Hub remains active and meets six times a year to update current thinking in and to share training with teachers from schools across the city. This year two members of the hub were invited to the House of Commons to attend the launch of the Core Commission final report of Religious Education. Katie Freeman, one of the Plymouth SACRE members, was also invited to the House of Commons in February to talk about 'Excellent RE' in , with Lords and MPs at the APPG for RE. In March, the hub held its annual conference, led by Fiona Moss from REToday. This conference was carefully costed to support schools to attend valuable CPD for RE leaders.

5 Collective Worship

5.1 Monitoring and offering guidance on Collective Worship

Ofsted reports rarely mention Collective Worship and despite national concerns about non-compliance the Government have no current plans to revisit the issues. As part of their Safeguarding review offer to schools, Plymouth City Council Schools Health and Wellbeing Team includes a review of RE provision and Collective Worship, offering advice and guidance, should it be required, as a result of any relevant findings.

5.2 Complaints

No complaints about collective worship have been received by SACRE this year.

6. LINKS WITH OTHER BODIES

6.1 Devon and Torbay SACREs

As stated under 1.1 above, SACREs across the three Authorities have liaised regarding the new Agreed Syllabus and this continues at an informal level. Informal liaison is also undertaken by the Plymouth SACRE facilitator and the SACRE lead for Devon and Torbay

The new syllabus is common to all three Authorities and in Plymouth we continue to encourage schools to develop a unique, local approach based around the key themes relevant within their unique communities.

The annual South West SACRE Conference also provides an opportunity for representatives to meet, share ideas and concerns in an atmosphere of mutual support.

The RE Adviser for Devon and Torbay is a serving member of Plymouth SACRE.

6.2 NASACRE

SACRE acknowledges the essential role of NASACRE in providing support, representation and guidance for local SACREs in the vital role they perform. The Annual Conference provides an opportunity for SACRE representatives to meet and consider best practice and ways forward.

7. SACRE ARRANGEMENTS AND PRIORITIES

SACRE meets once per term and is supported by staff from Plymouth City Council: a Senior Education Adviser and a Democratic Support Officer.

Priorities have continued to be guided by SACRE's responsibility to monitor and review standards within Religious Education and Collective Worship.

7.1 Developments across 2018 - 2019

Priorities during this period have taken account of the limited Education Adviser time and the need to launch the new syllabus.

B LIST OF ORGANISATIONS TO WHICH REPORT IS SENT

Our report will be published, in electronic form, on the Plymouth schoolroom website and sent to the National Association of SACREs (NASACRE) for publication on their website. It will be made available to teachers and parents on request.

C THE DUTIES OF SACRE

SACRE primarily gives advice to the Local Authority about religious education in Community and Voluntary Controlled schools. It can give advice even if the Local Authority does not seek it, but the Local Authority is not obliged to act upon it. In two areas, however, SACRE's decision is binding.

Worship 'Determinations'

It has a duty to make a 'determination' if a community school applies for complete or partial exemption from the requirement that most acts of worship in a school term shall be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character reflecting the broad tradition of Christian belief in a manner appropriate to the ages, aptitudes and family backgrounds of the pupils. (For example, there may be a preponderance of pupils of a faith other than Christianity.) It is important to note that SACRE cannot exempt a school from the requirement to provide some form of worship (even if not Christian worship) for all pupils on every school day. The act of worship need not be in the morning or for the whole school at one time and it is open to individual parents to withdraw their children by arrangement.

There have been no applications of this kind to Plymouth SACRE this year.

Review of Agreed Syllabus

At the end of 2018 Plymouth SACRE asked a representative from each of the four houses, together with the SACRE facilitator, to serve on the Plymouth Agreed Syllabus Conference. This work took place and with further input from all Plymouth SACRE members, the launch of the new Revised Agreed Syllabus, as noted in the report above, was held at Plymouth Council House in July 2019.

Why a Report?

An Annual Report has been a legal requirement since the 1988 Education Act. The Education Act 1996, section 391.6 states:

'The Council shall in each year publish a report as to the exercise of their functions and any action taken by representative groups on the Council under Sub-Section 3 above during the last preceding year.

(Sub-Section 3 refers to the procedure for requiring a review of the Agreed Syllabus). The Council's report shall in particular:

- a) specify any matters in respect of which the Council has given advice to the Authority;

- b) broadly describe the nature of the advice given; and where any such matter was not referred to the Council by the Authority, give the Council's reason for offering advice on that matter'.
